I'm getting a certificate error when I try to deploy my app to Google App Engine standard. I've uploaded the certificate from the App Engine dashboard and even when I try using a different type of certificate it doesn't seem to work. From the error I'm getting it seems to be having a problem with my AWS certificate. Has anyone had this same error and been able to fix it? A: Try to do the following: Download the dev server certificate, I guess you should be able to find it inside your app directory(gcloud appcfg.py download_certificates) In terminal type these commands: appcfg.py update app.yaml --certificate_files /path/to/certificate appcfg.py update app.yaml --certificate_path /path/to/certificate Normally, after executing the second command you should be able to see the desired outcome All of our lighting fixtures are used, or have been used, in production and can be custom ordered with any of our standard panes.
