The number one RPG Maker series since 2007 is getting its first major release! Horror Stories: Hack & Slash (MZ), the very first horror RPG made with RPG Maker, is coming to PS4 and PS Vita on July 22nd, 2017 in Japan! Chances are you've played an RPG Maker game at some point, and might even have tried making your own. Well, this is your time to shine. Horror Stories: Hack & Slash (MZ) opens the doors of your character's world to a frightening new world! The story of Horror Stories revolves around Horror, the lone wolf that you play as. He was born a normal person, but one day he discovered a beautiful Woman who could even create magical items! When he hugged her, a mysterious magic began to wash over him! He fell into a different world, to a different world, and finally he is at the "center of the universe". Yeah, I know, it sounds like a bad anime... So, what are you waiting for? ♦ Let's make friends and embark on the adventure together! ♦ Make friends with the characters, meet the girls you know and love, and even make a few enemies along the way! ♦ How will your choices in story paths and dialogue options affect the outcome of the game? ♦ Let's bring Horror to life! ♦ Fight the Shadows and Set His Sights on Your Opponents! ♦ Defeat the dark creatures that dwell in the depths of the unknown, whether by fighting them or investigating them. About RPG Maker MV Go beyond the boundaries of the RPG Maker series with exciting new battle mechanics, new UI elements, and a new battle UI, that will allow you to focus on the battle while keeping track of your characters' health. The hack and slash genre has been popular since the very first RPGs and Horror Stories: Hack & Slash (MV) is no exception! Choose your battle skills for team or individual play and watch your enemies fall as you face off against them in various modes and over different stages of battle. Take special moves to guarantee victory, as you fight to get to the bottom of the darkness. Let go of the past and go on an adventure... with your friends. What's new in Red Nivis:

Film-maker, Writer and Journalist, made his writing debut for the Jewish Press, and documentaries for the BBC, Channel 4 and B4C. Red Nivis is the creator of The Vatican, a 15 minute documentary about a pope who was excommunicated by the Pope at the second attempt. The film won the 'Best Documentary' award at the Dead Sea Film Festival, and has been selected for more than 20 other film festivals in the USA, UK and Europe. He has written and directed two documentary series and one documentary for the BBC and Channel 4: "Dead Ringer" (2005), "Crossing Boundaries" (2008), "The Quiz That Changed The World" (2010), and "The History of Israel" (2012) on which he is the present director. His screenplay "Never Miss a Chance" is an international co-production of Israel and New Zealand, produced and presented by Sir Terry Pratchett and the Discworld Foundation, and is now touring to many countries in Europe, the USA and Canada. Red Nivis is also the author of the book "The Choices We Make about the World and Who We Need to Change Them" which can now be ordered on Amazon (UK and US). Career Red Nivis started his career in New York where he worked as an assistant director for Stella Adler and in the Off-Broadway theatre. His first big break came when he produced and directed a comedy musical "To Receive is to Remember" in Tel Aviv where he was asked to direct a new production of the musical "Sweeney Todd". Red Nivis has directed and produced films in London, Paris, Amsterdam, Los Angeles, New Zealand and Israel. He was nominated as an Imperial Society for the Theatre in 1972 for his work as Director-Producer. The film was called "Never Love a Stranger", written by the director and his brother Zvi Nivis and performed by Judy Carne and Michael Crawford. "The Bitter Root", a documentary and concert film that he directed and produced in 1971, featured the composer and conductor Herbert Witherspoon. Red Nivis was a student at Technion University in Haifa, Israel from 1966 to 1970. He has been a resident playwright in Israel and Curaçao and also wrote 'An Evening of Jazz and Text'
